SCCF Announces The Matt McCabe Memorial Fund

The Sandusky County Communities Foundation (SCCF) has recently announced the creation of the Matt McCabe Memorial Fund. This fund aims to support students at Sandusky County Schools and Colleges in covering the costs of non-classroom experiences. These experiences could include but are not limited to, clinical practices at Terra State Community College for Nursing students or the purchase of tools, equipment, or uniforms for students at Vanguard-Sentinel Career and Technology Center.

The fund has been established by Neil McCabe in memory of his son, Matt McCabe. Matt believed in the importance of out-of-classroom experiences in his career. However, such experiences often add an extra expense to students' budgets. The Matt McCabe Memorial Fund will provide funds to educational institutions to disburse to students in need, reducing the cost of out-of-pocket expenses.

The Sandusky County Communities Foundation is committed to connecting people who care with causes that matter. Anyone who wishes to contribute to the Matt McCabe Memorial Fund may do so on the Donate Now page at www.sanduskyccf.org or by making a check payable to SCCF in care of The Matt McCabe Fund, 1245 Napoleon St. Fremont, OH 43420.
