Paul and Susan Wannemacher Establish Donor Advised Fund with Sandusky County Communities Foundation

Fremont- Sandusky County – The Sandusky County Communities Foundation is pleased to announce the establishment of the Paul and Susan Wannemacher Fund, a new Donor Advised Fund created to support the charitable organizations that are most meaningful to the Wannemacher Family.

By starting a Donor Advised Fund through the Foundation, Paul and Susan are able to make charitable gifts in a thoughtful and strategic way. They shared that contributing gifts of stock to the Foundation allows them to receive potential tax benefits at the end of the year while continuing to support the causes they care about most over time.

“Donor Advised Funds are a powerful tool for individuals and families who want flexibility in their giving while maximizing the impact of their charitable dollars,” said Andrea Gibson, Executive Director of the Sandusky County Communities Foundation. “We are grateful to Paul and Susan for their generosity and for choosing the Foundation as their philanthropic partner.”

Donor Advised Funds allow donors to make a charitable contribution, receive an immediate tax benefit, and recommend grants to nonprofit organizations at a pace and in a manner that aligns with their personal giving goals. Through the Paul and Susan Wannemacher Fund, they will continue their tradition of giving back while creating a lasting philanthropic resource.
